

Similes and Metaphors

First, find the simile or metaphor and underline it. Next, circle the two things being compared. Finally, write the meaning of the simile or metaphor based on the context of the sentence.

1. The baby was like an octopus, pulling all the socks off the rack at the store.

Meaning: _____

2. Sometimes, my mom tells me that our house is "like a three ring circus!"

Meaning: _____

3. The giant's steps were thunder as he ran toward Jack.

Meaning: _____

4. The pillow was a cloud when I put my head upon it after a long day.

Meaning: _____

5. After a long and exhausting run, I feel like a limp dishrag.

Meaning: _____

6. Those girls get along so well; they are like two peas in a pod.

Meaning: _____

7. The baby girl's smile was the sun on dark days.

Meaning: _____

8. No one invites Daniel to parties because he's a wet blanket.

Meaning: _____

9. The bar of soap was a slippery eel during Marco's shower.

Meaning: _____

10. Ted was as nervous as a cat with a long tail in a room full of rocking chairs.

Meaning: _____